To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description. I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1819.

We have heard, as our readers will have seen, of the arrival of Judge Provost, an agent of the United States, at Valparaiso, on his return from the mouth of Columbia river. It is said that our government has received from him a highly interesting report of that part of his mission. We do not know whether it is intended to be published; but, if it were, we are persuaded it would be very generally acceptable.—We want such a document, to make us acquainted with that most important tho' remote scion of the Republic. We even hope that Mr. Provost will bring back with him materials to furnish a volume on the subject, instead of a letter of a few pages, and that he will not withhold from his countrymen the fruits of his enquiries and observations. It will not be in the power, if it were the wish of the Atlantic states, to prevent the growth of a powerful commercial state at the mouth and on the banks of the Columbia. All the information respecting the country, which we can obtain, is therefore desirable.

National Intelligencer, July 10.

The correspondent of the Boston Exchange News Room, writes from Buenos Ayres, under date of the 28th April last that the United States frigate Macedonian arrived at Valparaiso 15th January, and on the 14th March sailed for Coquimbo, whence she would proceed to Lima On the 2d March, a fatal duel was fought at Valparaiso between Gordon and Abercrombie, midshipmen of the M. in which the latter was shot dead.

Our New-York Correspondent informs us, that the United States ships Franklin, Guerriere and Erie, were at Palermo May 9, to sail next day for Naples. The Spark sailed about 10 days before for Leghorn, and, after being out 10 days, returned with an English brig in tow, in a sinking condition—She had sailed again for Leghorn.

Degrand's Boston Sale Report of Saturday last, says—"The E. India Trade, comparatively speaking, will be nothing this year, from this quarter, to what it was last year. Hence the fall in the price of Spanish dollars; though they are not abundant."

We understand that the workmen have commenced opening the canal around the falls of the Ohio, on the Indian side.

Boston, July 6.

On Sunday, Mr. Stevenson, the coroner, held an inquest on the body of JOSEPH ARNOLD, a child about 10 years of age. The verdict was, that he came to his death by hanging, but that he hung himself without intending to commit suicide.

New-York, July 7.

UNHAPPY OCCURRENCE.

About 10 o'clock this morning, a lad of 14 or 15 years of age, was unfortunately killed by the unexpected discharge of a gun, on board the schr ——, capt. Green, of North Carolina, now lying at Fly Market wharf. The lad went on board the schr. last evening, and after stating that he was a stranger in the city, requested permission to sleep in the sails of the vessel. The captain replied that he might sleep in the cabin with his little son. The lad accordingly supped, lodged, and breakfasted in the cabin. After breakfast, the captain went on shore to attend to business, and during his absence the two lads amused themselves with a gun, which they supposed was unloaded. At length the captain's son levelled and snapped the gun at his companion; and a heavy charge of coarse shot entered his breast, and he fell lifeless upon the deck. We understand, that some person from New-London has since seen the lad, and recognized him as as an apprentice, who had lately deserted from his master in that city. His name we have not been able to learn.

Sussex, (N. J.) July 5.

Last Friday evening, Nathaniel Lemmons of Hardwick, was lodged in jail in this town. We understand that on Thursday last, he beat or struck his father Mathias Lemmons, several times with his fist, (both being intoxicated at the time) and on Friday morning the old man was found dead setting on the foot of the bed. A jury of enquiry was summoned—they concluded that the old man's death was hastened by a blow given by the said Nathaniel Lemmons, just below the ear, and brought in a verdict of wilful murder!

[Liverpool paper, May 31.

FOREIGN NEWS,

Received at the office of the New-York Commercial Advertiser, per the packet ship Courier, from Liverpool.

The Report of the Bank Committee was discussed at great length, in the British Parliament, on the 24th and 25th of May, The discussion terminated in the adoption of a number of Resolutions conformable to the spirit of that Report. The Bank is made liable from the 20th of February next to redeem its notes in Gold bars of not less than 60 ounces, at the rate of 4*l.* 1s. per ounce. The bars are to be assayed and stamped at the Royal Mint. The redemption of the Notes of the Bank in the Coin of the Realm is to commence within the period of four years.

Lord Grenville, in the House of Peers declared, that he now regretted supporting the Restriction Act in 1797. He observed that the facilities which it had afforded to Ministers towards the continuance of the late war, were more than counterbalanced by the distresses it had brought on the country; and that no urgency could, in his mind sanction the expedient of putting into the hands of the Bank Directors the power of changing at their pleasure the value of all property, and the price of all commodities, by the excessive issue of their incontrovertible paper at one moment, and by the contraction of it in the next. This power, which was not given to the throne, Parliament would no longer confide in the direction of a company of bankers; and all connexion between them and the government must be dissolved.

The Attorney General has introduced into the House of Commons, a Bill to prevent the enlistmen of British subjects in the service of foreign States, without the permission of their own Government; and a Circular has been issued from the War Office, (under date of the 26th of May) desiring the persons to whom it was addressed, to transmit to the Secretary of War, with the least possible delay, a list of all British Officers, whether on half pay or otherwise, who are now holding any military appointment in the Spanish or Portuguese service, or in the service of any Foreign Power.

Liverpool, May 31.

A circular has been sent to ministerial members, inviting them to meet lord Castlereagh at the Foreign Office on the 7th June. The object, according to report, is to sound them on the measure of reviving the property tax, with certain modifications, and even on the principle of a commutation, by which persons of real property, would be relieved from assessed taxes, in proportion to the sum that they paid as a property tax—while trade and professions, not chargeable with property tax, would still be liable to the full amount of their assessed taxes. If this should fail, taxes to the amount of two millions and a half per annum, are to be devised to pay the dividend on the expected loan; and among other articles, it is said, that an additional tax is to be laid on malt.

AN ATTEMPT ON THE DUKE OF YORK.

On Tuesday last, a man by the name of Delany, was examined at Bow-street, London—he had been found in the Duke of York's house, near his bed-chamber, after his royal highness had retired to rest. He was discovered by the page, as he also was going to bed, and had he entered only a minute later, he would have got uninterrupted to the duke's chamber; he had entered over the garden wall from the Green Park, by means of a large stone tied to a rope, which he threw over the wall. His plea was, that he had written in vain to the Duke, informing him of his distress, and having been denied admittance by the porter at the front door, he had recourse to the expedient described, in order to have an interview with his royal highness: he was committed to Bridewell as a vagrant. The unfortunate man attempted some time since, to drown himself in the canal, in St. James's Park.

London, May 28.

The following interesting letter from Spain has just reached us, and contains some important information. It seems that the Spanish government intends to form two separate armaments of the ships collected at Cadiz, some of which, it is affirmed, were to have quitted that port the beginning of this month.

"Cadiz, May 3.

Every one here had supposed that all the ships intended for the expedition would have sailed together, for the subjugation of the revolted colonies; this now does not appear to be the case, as orders have just reached this place from Madrid, directing the immediate departure of, the following ships with troops for Lima; the San Telmo and Alexandro men of war, carrying 70 guns each, and the Prueva frigate of 50 guns. These, they say, will get away if possible, by the 8th or 10th of this month. With regard to the other vessels, it is impossible to tell what is their destination, or when they will sail."

The following letter from our Correspondent in London contains our latest advices from that city:—

London, Saturday Even. ½ past 7, May 29.
Messrs. Lewis & Hall,

Since the settling day, the scarcity of money stock has been very considerable, and as the transfer books of Consols shut for the dividend next week, the demand for them has contributed materially to support the prices.

To-day was a holiday at the Bank, and consequently no business was done for money, a circumstance of which the speculators for a fall availed themselves, and sold largely, and thereby lowered the price from 66¼, the first quotation in the morning, to 66¼, but as some purchasers appeared later in the day, who bought freely, the market recovered to 66½, which was the closing price of the day. Exchequer Bills continue at a discount of two or three shillings, but this is not surprising, as they only pay an interest of 3 per cent, while the funds at the present prices, yield considerably more. Bank Stock has in some measure recovered its depression, a few days since 209 was the price and today it sold at 219.

A letter from Malta, dated April 9th communicates some alarming particulars relative to the Plague, which it was feared would be introduced into some of the neighboring islands. A small vessel, last from Susa, the crew consisting only of the Master and five other persons, put into the port of Marsaserocco, on the 28th March. Two of the crew who were boys, sickened and died on the voyage; the three others, after their arrival died of a disorder evidently resembling the plague. Every precaution was taken to prevent the communication of the infection—the bedding and clothes of the sailors were burnt, and even the vessel in which they had arrived.

An obliging friend has favored us with the following letter dated, Liverpool, May 31st, 1819.

Cotton continues fully as low in price as as it has been at any period since its depression; the average price of 3300 bags Uplands sold last week at 12¼d, and 780 bales New-Orleans rather below 13d; besides which 320 bales New-Orleans were sold by auction at 11¾d a 12¼d, and 580 bales ordinary Surats at the low price of 5¾d a 6d duty paid. Sea Islands are dull of sale at former prices.

There has been a regular and rather extensive demand for Cotton, principally from the spinners, but partly from speculators and exporters to the continent of Europe; such has, however, been the great accumulation of the stock, and the scarcity of money, occasioned by the enormous and unprecedented losses in every branch of trade that has unavoidably occurred, that Cotton has fallen to a price which has given the buyers confidence to purchase on an extensive scale. Should the imports materially diminish, we may have some moderate advance of price, and this, we think it probable, will take place; but with the exception of the spinning business, the trade in Cotton Goods is much depressed; and on the subject of prices we may farther remark, that there now seems less surprise that Cotton should bear its present price, than that it should ever have attained the extravagant prices of last year.

Rice in bond has fallen to 22s a 23s 6d per cwt. The ports are now shut against Wheat, Flour, Rye and Beans, and remain open for barley, Indian corn & pease, with every prospect of their being closed against these articles in August next. Indian Corn has fallen to 2s 10 a 3s per bushel.

The prices of other articles are almost nominal, as sales cannot be effected. We quote pot ashes 38s a 42s; pearls 44s .. 48s turpentine 10s. 6d. a 12s. 6d.; tar 13s. a 14s, 6d.

We are respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
THOMAS & JOHN D. THORNELY.

London, May 28.

COMMERCIAL OBSERVATIONS.

Sugar.—We must quote a further decline in this article of 2d per cwt. brown Jamaica's 58s a 61s.; middling 62s a 65s; good 66 a 72s and fine to 79s; very fine to 84s.—Barbadoes at public sale on Tuesday brought from good to very fine 74s a 78s 6d. Owing to their scarcity, fine Sugars continue to command disproportionate high prices,

Coffee.—Continues at our last quotation: there is at present scarcely any demand for exportation:—although the stock on hand is nearly 700 tons less than in May 1818, yet our prices are 4s per cwt. lower than at that period.

Cotton.—The only business done of moment is in Bengals for export; the demand still continuing for good common quality, and about 600 bales have been sold from 5¾d to 6¾d in bond; a few small sales have been made besides, as under:

20 Demeraras, good, at 18d.
40 Pernams, 20¾d
50 Maranhams, 17d.

Hemp, Flax, and Tallow.—The prices of tallow are nominally lower, but there is little or no business doing. Hemp may be stated at a further reduction. There are no purchasers of flax reported. The letters from Petersburgh state the exchange a shade lower,

Rice.—At the India House, last week, above 19,000 bags were brought forward for public sale, only about 6000 were disposed of.

Import of foreign Corn.—The aggregate averages of corn for the last six weeks, which regulate foreign importations, are—wheat, 3s 7d, barley 45s 7d, Oats, 27s 10d, rye, 48s 10d, beans, 50s 2d, peas, 53s 3d.—The ports are in consequence closed for the ensuing three months against the importation of foreign, wheat, rye, and beans, and open for the other grain.

Foreign Wools. The market still continues flat; a few buyers have made their appearance, but at such reduced prices, that the holders generally feel little disposition to serve them.

Tobacco.—There is little variation in the prices of Tobacco. The letters from Paris state that the French government have contracted for 1,570 hhds. Virg. Tobacco at 187 to 240f. per 100 kil.

Liverpool, May 29.

There has been a fair demand for cottons, but prices of bowed have again given way ¼d per lb. and Surats of low quality 1d per lb.; other kinds are also rather lower. The public sales yesterday were not numerously attended by the trade, but, with the exception of the Surats, did not materially vary from the previous prices. The total sales amount to 7600 bags—319 Orleans, middling to good fair, 11¼ a 12¾; 2900 bowed. 11½ to 13d.; 350 do. in bond, 11d a 11½; 580 Orleans, 11¾ to 16½d; 100 do. in bond, 12d to 13½d.; 80 Sea-Island, 2s ½d. a 2s 8d.; 60 stained do 17d. There has been a regular demand for tobacco for the trade at former prices.

Turpentine fully maintains its former price, and 500 bls. of good quality were sold yesterday at 12s 6d.—Am. tar also is without further depression—500 bls. were sold on Saturday last at 15s. and some orders still remain unexecuted, but 15s. is not very readily obtained. Foreign pitch is very dull. Potashes go off rather more readily, but at no improvement in price—100 bbls. of Boston, not quite fresh, have been sold at 42s. and several parcels of New-York and Montreal at 41s and 42s—There is still some demand for export.—Pearls are very dull, but former prices are nominally supported. Carolina rice is lower—100 tierces of fair Carolina have been sold at 22s 3d a 25s.

Sea-Island cotton, good to fine, 2s 3d a 2s 10d; ordinary to middling, 1s 9d a 2s 2d; Bowed Georgia, 11d a 1s 3d; N. Orleans, 11d a 1s 3d; Tennessee, 10¾ a 11¾d. James river leaf tobacco, 3½ a 8d.; stemmed, 6 a 8d; Rappahannock leaf 3½ a 6¾d; stemmed, 6 a 7d.; Kentucky leaf, 3½ a 6d.—Ashes, 1st pot fresh, U. S. 40 a 43s. 1st Pearl. 46s a 48s.; Turpentine, per cwt. good, 12s 6d a 13s; Tar, Am. cargoes, 13s a 15s; Flour, Am. sweet, per bbl. 32s a 38s; sour and oily, 28s 6d a 31s 6d.—Rice, Am. per cwt. in bond, 23s a 25s.—Flaxseed, per hhd. of 7 bush. for crushing, 65s a 68s.—Quercitron Bark, per cwt. 14s a 22s.—Staves, W. O. pipe, 27s a 30s; hhd. 16s a 26s; brl. 9s a 18s; red oak, barrel, 8s a 9s.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

I had occasion, the other day, to purchase some trifles in a store in Broadway, which were shown me by a clerk, a young man fashionably dressed with a dandy coat and neckcloth, in the usual ridiculous manner. Looking steadfastly at him, I thought I recognised his countenance. Is your name Greenwood? said I. That is my name, at your service, said the young man, closing the till with a fashionable slam, and yawning in a most languishing manner. Of Orange county? Yes, of old Orange, said he; I was tired of rural felicity and dairy maids and stone barns, and thought I'd try my fortune at the capitol, where genius and elegance always are patronised.

Well, sir, is your change of residence profitable and useful? Why, sir, it's pleasant; I see a great deal of good company in the shop; have some leisure to dress, promenade and learn French; I get a small salary, 'tis true, but I may pick up a fortune in the way of marriage; luck, you know, comes unexpected, but it sometimes comes, and that's enough. I left the puppy. His father, old Oliver Greenwood, is an honest, practical farmer, in Orange co. his house is substantial, but old fashioned, surrounded with a white paled fence, and a neat flower garden in the rear—an old oak, with its thick foliage and cumbrous branches, casts a venerable shade over his peaceful mansion—the interior is furnished neatly, and with some ornament—the parlor is covered with a carpet ingeniously made and wove by the wife and daughters, a book-case with a choice collection, a spinnet and a few pictures of great men and scripture subjects, constituting all that was for exhibition or for use. When I was some years younger, I was in the habit of taking my gun, and paying a visit to old Greenwood for a few days. Many a hearty meal have I taken in his hospitable mansion. Talk of comfort in our splendid drawing rooms and crowded parties: it is not known.

After a morning's ramble over the well cultivated fields, and brushing off the spangled dew from the rich and perfumed clover, we returned to the house, warned by the shrill echo of the breakfast horn: our sinews braced with exercise, and our appetites rendered keen by the swelling breeze. No unmeaning ceremony or tedious compliments worried the hungry stranger: the wife was neat and cheerful: the girls plainly dressed, with rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes—they had no papers in their rich brown hair, with pins crossed in curls—no languid drawl, or vacant stare, or slip shod shoes, or greasy morning gown—they were brisk as bees, lively as Euphrosyne, industrious as Lucretia—and their morning dresses might vie with mountain snow for whiteness. And then the breakfast: no vapid tea or cold toast and greasy butter and chipped meat—a clear cup of coffee and cream, butter fresh and hard from the dairy, smoked shad, boiled eggs and sweet brown bread. This was nearly all the produce of the farm—consequently comfort was united with economy.

It was at this period that I remembered seeing the young man from whom I had just parted in Broadway. He was then dressed as a plain and respectable farmer, and was occupied in various duties about the premises, and bidding fair to become a useful citizen: the folly and indulgence of the father yielded to his caprices, and he sent him to New-York to try his fortune, like Yorkshire boobies who go up to London for the same purpose.

There is no error so pernicious in its effects as that of sending a young man fresh from the country, pure in principles, and inexperienced, to reside in a populous city, and become familiar with its pleasures, its vices, and extravagances. What inducement can an honest farmer have, in thus banishing his children from independence, industry and comfort. There is, certainly no occupation more honorable, more useful, more valuable to a country than that of Agriculture; the farmer is the defender of the soil which he tills—labor nerves his arm, and patriotism warms his heart; he is most depended upon, because his pursuits are more steady, and more generally prosperous. Of all the characters of which our country boasts, there is none superior to a well informed sensible farmer; not alone a practical man, but one who has read, who knows the world, his country, and its laws What sight is more gratifying than that of a young man of information and good qualities, between the handles of a plough? Follow him to his well stocked barn, and see him gracefully and manfully ply the flail, culling the rich treasures of Ceres; and, when exercise demands a transient rest, see him seated on his sheaves of straw, and hear him talk of Greece and Rome; narrate historic facts; dwell on the history of his country, its wars, government and institutions. Why, such a man is above all price—he is useful to himself and beneficial to his country. Pursue this train of thought, and trace him to the Hall of the Legislature, and see him in another and more elevated capacity, giving laws to the state, redressing public grievances and healing private wrongs. How can a parent permit his son to be cut off from usefulness, and "crib" himself in a city upon a miserable stipend, dragging out a life of indolent pleasure without hope of profit or advancement. Most of our small retail stores are filled thus with the sons of farmers, who eager to escape salutary labor, and partake of the delusive pleasures of a city, are crowding to N. York, abandoning a sure road to character and independence, and giving us a portion of population, which is neither useful to society nor beneficial to themselves. HOWARD.

THE ETERNAL PROGRESSION OF HEAVENLY HAPPINESS.

Doctor Dwight closes his sermon on the happiness of heaven, with the following apt and beautiful comparison:—

"To the eye of man, the sun appears a pure light—a mass of unmingled glory.—Were we to ascend with a continual flight towards this luminary, and could we, like the eagle, gaze directly on its lustre, we should in our progress behold its greatness continually to enlarge, and its splendor become every moment more intense. As we soar through the heavens, we should see a little orb changing gradually into a great world, and, as we advanced nearer and nearer, should behold it expanding every way, until all that was before us became an universe of excessive and immeasurable glory. Thus the heavenly inhabitant will, at the commencement of his happy existence, see the divine system filled with magnificence and splendor, and arrayed in glory and beauty; and, as he advances onward through the successive periods of duration, will behold all things more and more luminous, transporting and sunlike, forever."

Public Sale.

ON FRIDAY, the 9th instant, at 12 o'clock of that day, by virtue of a deed of trust, we will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, that very valuable tract of land in Fairfax county, near Holmes's Run, and about four miles from Alexandria, generally known by the name of containing about 115 acres. This land is about one half in wood—the balance cleared, and in cultivation, with convenient buildings on it, and excellent water near them. A considerable proportion of the open land is fertile, and well calculated for timothy meadows.

The sum of $2,254 77 cts will be required to be paid in cash; for the residue a credit of twelve months will be given from the day of sale, the purchaser paying interest thereon, and giving satisfactory security for the punctual payment thereof. A conveyance will be made when the purchase money and interest is all paid up. If the terms of the sale should not be complied with by the purchaser, the premises will be immediately re-sold to the highest bidder, at the risque of the person to whom it shall have been struck off; and the same course will be repeated until an effectual sale shall have taken place.

Lands for Sale.

BY virtue of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county, Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Mattawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Samuel Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years; the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm. Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
